

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1897.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper receive a great value. No publisher can afford to pay more than a merchant can afford to pay for the advertising of goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business, and the value of its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter what part of the paper they appear.

We Knew We Had a Good Thing in the Stock of Goods

We bought by electric light a few days since. There is a great demand for Clothing & Garments in vogue just now, and we refrained from saying very much about the purchase. We simply called the public's attention to it by telling them to look at the display of these goods in our windows and note the prices on them. We knew we would sell some of them. The warm weather left a doubt as to selling a great many now. The doubt is dispelled. Since the day we opened this purchase and placed them in our windows our sales have been crowded with customers anxious to secure these unheard-of bargains. We advise our friends who contemplate buying Fall Suits and Overcoats not to let this opportunity slip. It is only once in a long time that circumstances arise that enable merchants to secure first-class Clothing that can be sold for less money than the cheaply gotten-up stuff that is flooding the market just now.

Our $2, $2.50 and $3 Custom-Made

SHOES!

That we warrant to give satisfaction and cheerfully return the money if they do not have quickly sprung into favor. Out of town mail orders—and of which we receive many—receive prompt attention. Look at our show-windows; note like them in the state.

HECHINGER & CO
LEADERS IN FINE CLOTHING AND SHOES.

THE BEE HIVE

The Bee Hive's Princeless Bargains Eclipse Them All.

All-wool Dress Goods, 38 inches wide, plaids and novelties, strictly pure wool, new goods, regular $36, quality, our price 10c. yard.

SILKS! SILKS! Our very finest Silks—plaids, stripes, brocades, moires, changeable taffetas—in black and all colors, sold regularly at $36, to $1.75 yard, your choice now at 30c. and 75c. yard. Ladies, the opportunity of a lifetime to get elegant new silks at less half price.

RIBBONS. 300 pieces all pure silk from 4 to 6 inches wide, moire, plain satin, taffetas and fancies, worth up to 50c. yard, one of our princeless bargains, choice 10c. yard.

PERCALES. 36 inches wide, new goods, Roman stripes and plaids, regularly sold for 12c., our price 9c. yard.

FRINGE GINGHAM. Best goods, rich, dark plaids; we mark entire line now 6c. yard.

SILK VELVETS. 13 colors, close high pile, you have often paid $1 for no better qualities, our price this week 40c. yard.

ROSENTHAL BROS. KINGS OF LOW PRICES.

P. S.—Just arrived, 300 pairs large Bed Blankets, white and gray, 40c. pair. We still sell for 6c. yard best Calicoes, Apron Gingham, Heavy Shirting Cotton.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER ALMANAC.

WEATHER—TOMORROW.

Blue—Rain to Show.

Wind—North—Cloudy.

Temperature—Coldish'twill be.

Unless Block's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a portion of the day, according to a forecast made for 10 o'clock to-morrow evening.

DOGGER.

He howled, and began to weep.

A happy man and wife.

The clouds—they did his weeping.

The wind—it sighed his sighs.

He made what Fortune brought him.

The limit of desire:

Time to get home in summer days.

In winter time, for fun.

When tempest, as with vengeance' rod.

His early mansion cleft,

On the blank sea, he still braved God.

Life and the lame were left;

Content, he scarcely rose he can,

And died—poor dog.

Some good, some better than the man

Who worked his life away.

—Pittsburgh Bulletin.

Bargain Days at Hodfieh's Special Underwear and Blankets.

Charles F. Weaver becomes Mayor of Louisville on Tuesday next.

Marie Deles, the famous prima donna, will sing at Felicity, O., tomorrow.

20 pounds Granulated Sugar $1.

Wool & Co.

Dr. C. C. Owens is getting along as favorably as his physicians could expect.

Mr. A. F. Curran was elected Police Judge of Dover over Hiriam Easman.

The Flemingsburg City Council has contracted for ten arc lights to light the town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Franklin of Flemingsburg have moved back to their home with a cat.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 6 o'clock in the morning of each day.

Roper will sell you Baltimore Oysters any way you want them.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson is slowly improving from her recent illness.

Anchor Patent Flour for $5 a barrel cash.

M. C. RUSSELL & SON.

Mr. W. A. P. Lursey has been seriously ill this week at Dover.

Mr. Henry A. Power was defeated in his race for Councilman at Paris.

Mr. Andrew Currie and Miss Lucy Harris will wed at Carlisle November 24th.

Free turpikes and the turnpike bond issue both carried in Boyle County's election.

Elder A. S. Morrison closed his Pastorate of the Carlisle Christian Church Sunday last.

Mr. James H. Hall has purchased a pair of fine carriage horses from Mr. Dan Mitchell of Carlisle.

Mr. Harvey Miller of Harrodsburg and Miss Edna Earle Hutchings will marry at the Carlisle Christian Church November 24th.

The remains of Captain T. B. Hoobler, the victim of an atrocious assassin at Vancamp, were yesterday taken to Cincinnati for interment.

The stock of clothing, boots, hats, etc., recently assigned to Messrs. Charles B. Pearce, Jr., and John Duley by Israel Greenstein, was sold at public auction at 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon. David Hechinger was the purchaser at $2,500.

The stock of clothing, boots, hats, etc., recently assigned to Messrs. Charles B. Pearce, Jr., and John Duley by Israel Greenstein, was sold at public auction at 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon. David Hechinger was the purchaser at $2,500.

The remains of Mrs. James McFadden were interred yesterday at Washington. She was 37 years of age and died of consumption at her home on the Laytham pike.

Mr. John A. Gorman has sold his interest in the Flemingsburg Gazette to his partner, Mr. William M. Wilh, who now becomes sole owner of that enterprising paper.

He many friends will be pleased to learn that Dr. J. H. Samuel, who has been confined to his room for the past ten days, is recovering rapidly and expected to be out in a few days.

The Kentucky Trout-Horse Breeders' Association annual meeting for 1898, and Kentucky's Great Trout will take place during the ten or eleven days of October 4th to 15th, including the 10th.

Mrs. Susan Conner of Hamilton, O., who was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas M. Luman of Cincinnati, street, was called home Wednesday by the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Phoebe Castor.

You can't wait miss seeing on the fourth page the advertisement of Mr. D. Murphy's Jewelry Store and see how cheap you can buy an elegant bridal present. Sterling Silverware, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Onyx top Tables, handsome Sterling Silver Spoons and Forks. Prices lower than any other house. Goods are the best on earth.

Cat at Murphy's Jewelry Store and see how cheap you can buy an elegant bridal present. Sterling Silverware, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Onyx top Tables, handsome Sterling Silver Spoons and Forks. Prices lower than any other house. Goods are the best on earth.

The marriage of Miss Sudie Berry to Mr. Marius Mullikin took place last evening at the Presbyterian Chapel in Cincinnati, Rev. M. Lee officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. A. Berry of West Second street, and is a highly esteemed young lady. Mr. Mullikin is bookkeeper in Armour & Co.'s Cincinnati house.

Call at Murphy's Jewelry Store and see how cheap you can buy an elegant bridal present. Sterling Silverware, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Onyx top Tables, handsome Sterling Silver Spoons and Forks. Prices lower than any other house. Goods are the best on earth.

The marriage of Miss Sudie Berry to Mr. Marius Mullikin took place last evening at the Presbyterian Chapel in Cincinnati, Rev. M. Lee officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. A. Berry of West Second street, and is a highly esteemed young lady. Mr. Mullikin is bookkeeper in Armour & Co.'s Cincinnati house.

The funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Burial at the Maysville Cemetery.

The case of Harry Ewing for the murder of Isaac Griffith at Logan's Gap has been continued until November 23d.

Mrs. Fannie Dixon of Tilton was written to Covington's Chief of Police asking if her husband, Mr. Robert Dixon, is still in custody.

Constable W. B. Dawson of this city is engaged in hunting for the demon who so inhumanely murdered Captain T. B. Hoobler at Vancamp Tuesday evening.

On account of missing connection, Turner's Novelty Company will not arrive until 4:35 this afternoon; but the street parade will take place all the same.

Captain Edgington is building at Higginbotham a boat to take the place of the Silver Star recently destroyed by fire. The new boat will be called the William Dufey, and will run from Augusta to Vancamp.

The latest figures from this Judicial District place Judge Harbeck's majority at about 100, and defeat James H. Selby by the close margin of 3. It will require the official count to settle the matter.

Mrs. George C. Goggins of Washington was yesterday stricken with paralysis for the second time. She had already been invalid for several years, and this second stroke makes her condition quite serious.

Mr. Mary A. Bell, National Organizer of the Woman's Work in the W. E. Church, will address the C. W. B. M. in the Chapel of the Christian Church Saturday at 2:30 p.m. A most cordial invitation is extended to all, and especially to the Missionary Society of the other Churches to hear her.

"AMERICA."

A Spectacular Production By Well Known Local Amateurs.

Novel Entertainment Under the Auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church.

At the Opera House, on the evenings of November 25th and 26th, will be produced an entertainment both unique and instructive. About one hundred of the young people of Maysville will participate, and an evening of rare pleasure may be looked forward to. The entertainment represents patriotism and especially sketches the use and advance of patriotic thought in America from 1492 to 1897.

BOUND OVER.

James Bell to Answer Before the Grand Jury for Forgery.

James Bell, who was arrested Tuesday for the forgery of an $18 check, prepared to be drawn on and paid by the Gladys Inn Hotel, which is owned by the Railway Company, and endorsed by the Central Hotel Company and W. H. B. Daugherty, which latter was also a forgery—hear a hearing before Judge Wadsworth yesterday afternoon.

He was held to the Grand Jury in $500, in default of which he was sent to jail. The check was drawn on and paid by the First National Bank, and when arrested Bell had $12.75 of the money on his person.

PASSED AWAY.

Mr. Marion Walker Dies This Morning From His Recent Accident.

Mrs. S. F. & M. Walker died this morning at 6:30 o'clock at his home at the corner of Commerce street and Forest avenue.

Mr. Walker, about twelve days since, was at work sawing some timber in W. B. Mathews & Co.'s Mills, and in some way brought his right hand in contact with one of the saws, completely severing that member below the wrist.

For some time after the accident Mr. Walker was getting along nicely, the injury causing him no trouble, and it was thought he would pull through all right.

Two or three days ago indications of lockjaw appeared, and it was this that caused his death this morning.

Decesed was born in Fleming county January 16th, 1857, and was consequently in the 70th year of his age.

He had long been a resident of this city, where by his many acts of kindness he had made himself one of our best citizens.

Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. W. H. Frederick of the Sixth Ward.

The funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Burial at the Maysville Cemetery.

Wedding Presents.

We are now on the threshold of the great wedding season. It is now that almost daily our attention is called by a dainty invitation to the fact that some of our friends are to be married. Each invitation means a present. Have you put your thoughts on the subject? If not, follow us a few minutes. There are in our store hundreds of articles absolutely correct for wedding presents and with prices ranging from one dollar or so up to hundreds of dollars. As thought directs us let us suggest Watches, Silverware, Clocks, Onyx Tables, Lamps, Cut Glass, Bricabrac, Carving Sets, Pearl Handle Knives, Bronzes, Spoons, Berry Dishes, Ice Cream Sets, Game Sets, &c.

From the great assembly here of handsome articles, suitable for wedding presents, you'll be able to select just the article you have in mind.

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 37, and send it in.

TOBACCO INSURANCE—John C. Everett.

USE RAY'S ESTATE for chapped hands and rough skin. At Postoffice Drugstore.

Don't fail to place your "ad" in THE LEDGER if you want the most for your money.

The late three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Union Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of roup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place, and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected that remedy for his own family, for his child's life.

He is in danger, he knows it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cure of roup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by J. James Wood, Druggist.

It has been a custom among revenue officers to invite their friends to the warehouses to take a drink. This rule kept up for 313 days in the year will amount to a considerable sum, not only to the distiller, but to the Government as well. If this has been going on under your supervision it ought and must be stopped. It is not the intention of the Collector to have men of this character in the service, but should a mistake be made, and they should receive appointment, they will be weeded out as fast as possible.

If you want to drink or gamble send in your resignation beforehand, and then you can drink and gamble on your own responsibility. Preserve this in order that you may not forget it. Respectfully,

J. YANDELL, Collector.

RAILWAY HOSPITAL.

Chesapeake and Ohio Association Organized and Ready For Business.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Hospital Association, which has just been organized for operation as soon as possible after November 1st, has issued a circular letter stating its objects.

The Association will be managed by a Board of Directors, five of whom will be officers and five employees of the road.

The Gladys Inn Hotel, which is owned by the Railway Company, has been turned over to the Association free of rental and will be handsomely furnished and suitably located as soon as the Association is prepared to take such steps.

All employees will be eligible to admission, whether sick or injured, and will be attended free of cost.

The employees will be subjected to small monthly assessments, ranging according to their pay. Employees who have not worked fifteen days during a month will be relieved of the assessments.

The assessments regularly made will be deducted from the salaries on pay day and credited to the general fund of the Association.

Mackintoshes!

Ugly weather ahead, lots of it, till we get the full quota of rain, so long delayed. That means Mackintosh time. We know what's expected of the store now. We're ready to help folks to comfort and safety, and to make up of these garments. There's a noticeable easiness about the style, too. Here's a word of some: Zenda Mackintoshes, cashmere or cravatette fabric, double texture, plain, Klondike or inland velvet collars, double detachable cape or Zenda cap, full skirt, plain or solid lining, black, blue, green, garnet, $3.50, $5.

CAPES—Do not suffer from changes in fashion like jackets, and there are many times one needs such a wrap. That's the reason for our great cape selling, for the great stocks we gather. They are principally imported, because capes are one of the things foreigners make in ways best. But that doesn't elevate the price. Cloth capes from $2.50 to $30. Velvet and satelite capes from $5 to $35.

THE HANDKERCHIEF FAIR for lace footing edges is gaining popularity. We have beautifully sheer cambric and linen squares, daintily hemstitched ready for skillful fingers to apply lace or footing edges or both, no taste inclines. Save time and trouble of hemstitching. Three qualities—10c, 25c, 35c. Plenty of handkerchiefs more costly of course, but that's another story.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

GINGHAM—Staple as any goods you can name. Honest Apron Gingham, blue, brown, green, dark colors, the sort every woman needs more or less of and always paid 50c. for. Saturday night you can buy the identical quality at 25c.

D. HUNT & SON.

It might have been a very good thing for the Republican party of Mason county if the "Bosses" had been "running things" Tuesday. As it was, and as it had been ever since the campaign opened, things just ran themselves.

It took thirty years of hard work to place Republicans in five of the county offices. It took just thirty days of criminal indifference on the part of the party managers to put them out. Now, let's see how long it will take them to get back.

STANTON'S COURAGE.

That Remarkable Cabinet Meeting in February, 1861.

SOME SENSATIONAL SCENES.

Washington Star.

The circumstances under which Mr. Stanton became a member of the Buchanan Cabinet and the work he did there for the Union are not told fully in the biographies.

A brother in law of Mr. Stanton, Mr. Wolcott, is the authority given for the story about to be told, every word of which is believed in Steubenville.

At the time Mr. Stanton, then a life-long Democrat, was asked to become a member of it, the Buchanan Cabinet was composed of Cobb, in the Treasury; Black, as Attorney General; Thompson, in the Interior Department; Floyd, as Secretary of War; Toucey, as Postmaster General.

"In this Cabinet," to use the words of one who was the friend of Stanton from boyhood, "there were traitors, both active and passive."

Buchanan was not a traitor himself, but a weak, irresolute old man, bound hand and foot by those in his Cabinet who were.

Floyd had dispersed the army to different and distant points, so as to make it unavailable at the Capital.

Toucey had scattered the Navy to different and distant parts of the world, so that it could not be collected for months.

Thompson had stolen more than $1,000,000 in Indian bonds.

Cobb had the Treasury empty, and the rebels were at arms.

The signs of the times were appalling. Cassaw nothing before him but political ruin. He resigned his office, and Black was appointed in his place, leaving the law department of the Government vacant. In addition to other causes of alarm, Floyd had attempted to ship all of the heavy ordnance to Pittsburgh to the South, and was checked by the uprising of the people, who sent a deputation to Washington to inform the President and to enter their protest against the movement.

In this extremity President Buchanan sent for Mr. Stanton, and asked him what he thought about the signs of the times. The answer was characteristic:

"You are sleeping on a volcano. The ground is mixed all around and under you and ready to explode, and without prompt and energetic action, you will be the last President of the United States."

"Mr. Stanton," said the feeble old man, "for God's sake, come in and help me. The Attorney General's office is vacant. Will you except it?"

"If you desire my help I will," was the reply.

This is the story of Mr. Stanton's invitation to enter the Cabinet as it comes from an immediate relative. There is no reason to doubt that it was told practically as it was given in family confidence by Mr. Stanton himself. The same applies to the account of what took place after he entered the Cabinet:

"The first day of Mr. Stanton's incumbency of the office of Attorney General he passed in ferreting out the grand larceny of Thompson on the Indian fund. When the Cabinet met in the evening, Mr. Stanton was late in arriving. As the new Attorney General entered, he saw Floyd pacing the room, and gesticulating furiously in a temper and whirlwind of speech against somebody who had cut down his flagstaff, broken off the trunks of his guns and cut and burned his wheels, and so on. Mr. Stanton sat down without uttering a word and without pretending to understand what was meant. When Floyd stopped somebody asked:

"What do you think about it, Mr. Attorney General?"

"About what?" said Mr. Stanton.

"About Maj. Anderson's breaking up camp at Fort Moultrie and going into Fort Sumter."

"The most glorious event since the 4th of January, 1815," answered the new member of the Cabinet, "has stirred the heart of every loyal man in the Nation."

"What?" demanded Floyd, "an officer of the army violating his orders?"

"What orders?" retorted Stanton. "Did you, Mr. President, give orders to Maj. Anderson to remain in that old, dilapidated fort, surrounded by enemies, when a stronger one was available?"

"No," said Mr. Buchanan, "I gave no such orders."

"Did you know of any such orders being given?" Mr. Stanton asked.

"No, sir. I never heard of it before," said the President.

"Then," said Mr. Stanton, "the man who gave such orders ought to be hanged on a gallows higher than Haman."

"Here Secretary Thompson interposed to rebuke the incisiveness of so new a man in the Cabinet.

"Mr. Thompson," said Mr. Stanton, in reply, "I have been here long enough to find out that you have stolen nearly a million of Indian bonds, and expect to stay here till I see you punished for it."

"Then the tempest rose and raged till midnight, when the meeting broke up. The next morning Cobb, Floyd and Thompson resigned. In a single night Stanton broke the conspiracy in the Cabinet which was killing his feeble old friend. There were now two honest men in the Cabinet—Stanton and Holt. Through their influence General John A. Dix was put at the head of the Treasury.

"There is reason to believe, and I for one do believe," said the friend here quoted, "that but for the bold stand taken by Mr. Stanton on that memorable eveing Mr. Lincoln would never have been inaugurated in Washington. The knives of the assassins were already whetted, and he would inevitably have been murdered. But the active traitors being driven from the Cabinet, General Scott collected a few soldiers and marines to the number of about 1,000, and secured the peaceful inauguration of the new President.

About a dozen leading citizens, including several politicians, including Mr. Bradley about nine o'clock in the morning, when the trouble began, made before morning to lynch the men confined in jail, charged with being in the conspiracy which led to the tragically early Tuesday morning.

Deacons died. Turners, after many from the shock produced by their husband's death, and this has killed to the already intense feeling among the anti-slavery people, who have been on duty the past two nights. Adding to the excitement and anxiety of the evening, the desultory firing of revolvers by unknown parties in opposite parts of the city were also to be heard.

About a dozen leading citizens, including several politicians, including Mr. Bradley about nine o'clock in the morning, when the trouble began, made before morning to lynch the men confined in jail, charged with being in the conspiracy which led to the tragically early Tuesday morning.

Deacons died. Turners, after many from the shock produced by their husband's death, and this has killed to the already intense feeling among the anti-slavery people, who have been on duty the past two nights. Adding to the excitement and anxiety of the evening, the desultory firing of revolvers by unknown parties in opposite parts of the city were also to be heard.

Gov. Bradley himself remained at the executive office till after midnight.

At o'clock there was no indication of danger.

ROIT VICTIMS BURIED.

A Post Mortem Held at the Grave of Dr. Deakin.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 5.—The glore, the third of the victims of Monday night's riot, was buried Thursday morning.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was being buried in the cemetery Wednesday with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had been guilty of the killing.

Deacon Sheriff Deakin was buried with full military honors. The grave was marked with a post-mortem, which showed that Deakin had been shot from above and behind, adding to the theory of the prosecution that some of Egbert's compatriots in the mob had

